Coleman Professional Services, a nationally recognized not-for-profit provider of behavioral health and rehabilitation programs has an exciting opportunity to help develop the cutting edge of Integrated Health Care in the region. We are seeking psychologists with their PhD or a social work and/or counseling individuals with their LISW/LISW-S licensure interested in providing behavioral health services to patients and being part of a pioneering new program designed to integrate behavioral health providers into multi-disciplinary integrated care teams in primary care offices in Summit County. Currently we have both full-time and part-time openings.

Successful candidates will provide short-term, problem-focused behavioral health and behavior modification services to help patients resolve mental health problems, motivate healthy behavior choices, and manage chronic disease. These activities can include cognitive behavioral therapy, family meetings, motivational interviewing, SBIRT services, smoking cessation, sleep hygiene, and treatment plan adherence.

Hours will be primarily during the day with some evening hours. Candidates must have the ability to work in a medical setting as part of a medical-model team, have all relevant vaccinations, and be willing to comply with partner health system's annual vaccination policy. Candidates must be licensed as a Psychologist with their PhD or LISW/LISW-S, have an NPI number, be enrolled as a provider to bill Ohio Medicaid, and have a CAQH account created. Previous experience in an integrated health care environment or other medical setting is preferred.

Benefit options include health, life, pension, paid time off, and more. Qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or protected veteran status. E.O.E. Persons with a disability can request an accommodation to complete the application process by emailing careers@colemanservices.org with the subject line "Accommodation Request."
